SOURCE

Joaquin Gallego Lara, who was chosen as the Ecuadorian member of the Latin American Committee of the Communist Party in France (see [REDACTED]), was reported to have expected to leave Ecuador on or about 15 August 1947. A later report states that subject has been unable to arrange his passage and is still in Ecuador. The French ship, "Dieppe," on which Lara was scheduled to sail, will not stop in Ecuador, but will continue directly to Peru. In addition to difficulties in booking passage, subject has not received all the necessary travel visas.
